

Technology 101: Realtor.org

Description: The Technology 101 Workshop series offers hands-on training using some of today's most innovative and useful technology.

Join us as we explore the numerous benefits you receive as REALTOR® provided by the National Association of REALTORS®. This class will explore the tools that REALTOR.org provides its members to help your business grow and better serve your clients. Students are invited to share and learn together about the challenges.

Students are encouraged to bring their laptop and work along with the instructor.
